WALNUT STREET THEATRE

Dear Theatregoer,

Welcome to another exciting holiday season at the Walnut! The successes we have celebrated over the past 35 years as a not-for-profit producing theatre company would not be possible without the support of loyal theatregoers like you. We would like to say thank you. You help to make the Walnut the most popular theatre company in Philadelphia and the most subscribed theatre company in the world!

My wife and I love spending time with friends and family over the holiday season. I'm thrilled that our production of Annie has brought together so many members of our extended theatrical family to share with us this special time of the year. You'll recognize many of our actors on stage as they perform the Grammy and Tony Award-winning songs during this heartwarming production. I'm delighted that you've taken the time to be with us today.

Upstairs in our Independence Studio on 3, we have It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play. I hope you'll join us for this holiday classic, based on the iconic film. Set in a 1940s radio studio on a crisp Christmas Eve, we have five enchanting actors and an array of live sound effects captivating audiences nightly with their storytelling. This production is the perfect way to continue to celebrate the season with your loved ones.

We are proud that our WST for Kids' production of Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol remains a must-see Philadelphia holiday tradition. Ebenezer Scrooge and Tiny Tim will fill the hearts of audiences with joy on this very stage. In addition to our exciting productions for kids, our Theatre School classes and Outreach programs continue to make a positive impact in the region, reaching more than 172,000 children annually. None of this would be possible without you.

For today, I invite you to sit back, relax and enjoy our production of Annie! My family and I wish you all the very best this holiday season.

Sincerely,

Bernard Havard, President and Producing Artistic Director

MARK D. SYLVESTER (Managing Director) Mark's extensive career has spanned Summer Stock to Broadway as an actor, stage manager, box office treasurer, theatre manager, marketing and public relations director and general manager. This season he is proud to be celebrating his 24th season at the Walnut. After several years working with commercial theatre he has devoted his career to non-profit theatre companies since 1987. To date, Mark has been associated with more than 400 stage productions. An avid collector of musical theatre recordings, his collection contains over 3,000 cast albums from around the world. Widely regarded as a theatrical marketing expert, Mark lectures and consults with organizations internationally. He has served on several boards including seven years with the National Alliance for Musical Theatre where he now holds the honorary position of Board Emeritus and the Advisory Committee of Samuel French, the international play publisher and licensing company. With Bernard Havard he co-authored the book Walnut Street Theatre. Since he joined the Walnut in 1994 it has become the most subscribed theatre company in the world.

BERNARD HAVARD (President and Producing Artistic Director) Vox Populi (The Voice of the People) was written on the Walnut Playbills in the 1800s. Whenever the Walnut has strayed from a populist program, the theatre has gone bankrupt. When I came here 35 years ago, we had no programs and no audience. Today we enjoy the largest subscription of any theatre in the world. So, my thanks to our loyal audience and a warm welcome to newcomers who enjoy and believe in what we do. I have tremendous admiration for the artists who have dedicated their lives to the theatre and the Walnut, in particular. Our theatre is a non-profit 501-C3 institution and we rely on contributed income to extend our reach into the community. Last season we reached more than 172,000 students in our city schools. We have 30 trustees who give their time, wisdom and contributions to help guide this historical treasure. I came to the Walnut in 1982, and I am as excited now about our future as I was in the beginning. My heartfelt thanks to all who enter this theatre.
